FROM IDAHO

We clip the following news from the Idaho Index, Silver City:

INDIAN RAID AND MURDER.

On the morning of the 12th inst., about 8 miles from this place, the Indians made an attack on the camp of Columbus Gossett, situated in Flint District, and about one mile from the town of Oro. It appears that Mr. Gossett was alone, and no doubt asleep. He was shot through the arm and in the body, his head split open with an axe, and from appearances they used a long handled shovel in beating his head and arms, as he no doubt endeavored to ward off the blows. On Tuesday morning when his body was found it was yet warm. It is supposed there are fifty or sixty Indians from the great number of tracks and the long distance they traveled over gathering up stock. They took about sixty head of horses and some cattle, but during the day Tuesday the cattle came back and some of the horses. About 10 o'clock on Tuesday and within six hours after the killing of Gossett fifteen armed and well mounted men started in pursuit. They followed about twenty-five miles, when they came to where the Indians had killed an ox and feasted. From the appearance of the place where the fire had been built the party were of the opinion that the Indians had so much the start that further pursuit would be useless.

ANOTHER ATTACK.

On Monday night, the 11th inst., [illegible] evening the Indians killed Gossett, Messrs. Webster and King were stopping in a tent near the base of South Mountain. After they had gone to bed, their dogs commenced barking and growling, which caused them to get up and prepare themselves. They, however, remained in the tent until the Indians, who had approached within a few feet, fired into the tent once or twice, when, thinking discretion the better part of valor, they left it, leaving the Indians firing away at them or the tent. While they were getting away as fast as possible the Indians continued firing at the tent and yelling tremendously at each fire. This was kept up until King and Webster got out of hearing. As soon as it was light they discovered where large bands of Indians had passed in the direction of Flint. Leaving the trail, taking to the right, they succeeded in getting into Oro, where the same morning, Gossett had been killed.

WHERE THE INDIANS ARE AND WHAT THEY INTEND TO DO.

We have been under the impression that the Indians have as a general thing concentrated on the Upper Owyhee, and united together for the purpose of stealing and killing with greater success. This is confirmed not only by their frequent raids in this neighborhood in large bands, but by the expeditions of Captain Collins and Colonel St. Clair in the John Day, Malheur and Stein's Mountain country, without finding any in that region. But by the report of the friendly Bruneau, who state that notwithstanding the hostility the Snakes and Piutes have against them, the squaws of the parties meet and tell that the Snakes, Piutes, Malheur, John Day, Warner Lake and Stein's Mountain Indians have all united the present season, on the Upper Owyhee, with the object of making one grand effort to drive the whites out of the country. They also threaten to exterminate the Bruneau.

HORSES STOLEN.

On the 8th inst., near South Mountain, about twenty miles from Silver, Mr. R. H. Brown with three other persons were encamped near the ranch of Mr. Brown. They had three horses tied in camp, and after sunrise they were let loose to graze. In about half an hour they missed the horses, and immediately started in pursuit. After going about two hundred yards they discovered where the Indians had caught them. It appears that three or four Indians with three horses had reconnoitered the camp, and concealing themselves behind a mound, lay in wait until the horses fed near them, when they caught them and made off in the direction of the Forks of the Owyhee. The party followed about fifteen miles, and not having sufficient force deemed it prudent to return.

MOVEMENTS OF THE MILITARY.

We are informed that very recently a company of soldiers passed up Burnt River to the head of John Days river; from there to the head of the Malheur, thence, down to Snake river, and was not able to find one Indian or any late sign. We also learn that Col. St. Clair (who only a few days since left Camp Curry, near Harney Lake) traversed all the country of the Upper Malheur, thence to the Owyhee and down to Snake, and finding no Indians. This goes to explain the desperate raids they are making in the upper Owyhee country, and why Major Marshall found such a large number of them together only forty miles from here. There is no question but they are concentrating for great mischief.

WAR AMONG THE INDIANS.

It is currently reported that the Snakes and Piutes made an attack on the Bruneau, located on a river of the same name. It is stated that the cause assigned is the Bruneau, a short time since, made a treaty with the whites, through our late Governor, Lyon, of Lyondale, to which the Snakes and Piutes object.

A SADDLE TRAIN CAPTURED.

Overmier & Miller's saddle train to Flint, consisting of five horses and one mule, together with all their rigging, was taken by the Indians on the night of the 12th. It appears when the train arrived at Oro, they went to the corral, stripped the animals, left saddles, bridles and everything in the corral. The Indians drove the stock into the corral, caught, saddled, bridled, mounted and rode them off to the Forks of Owyhee.

A MINING PARTY RETURNS.

That portion of the party that went on the Red Mountain expedition last spring, and remained in that section of the country prospecting and who were reported all killed, have returned, all safe. We have had no conversation with any of the party, but understand that they met with very little success in finding gold.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Work is still progressing on the Allison lode. Great quantities of rich rock is being taken out. It is expected that it will yield a large dividend when crushed.

The creek and gulch diggings are now paying well. The claims about Boonville pay well, also each claim that is worked all along the creek for several miles.

Immigration still continues to arrive at this place from California and Oregon. Silver City is fast being increased in population and improvements.

Still they come by scores and hundreds. The tide of celestials is bound for Idaho and Montana. The Snakes don't seem to stop them, nevertheless they make sad havoc amongst them when they make a strike.

GENERAL GRANT'S PLATFORM ON SLAVERY.—After the masterly and memorable speech of Hon. Henry C. Deming, of the Hartford (Connecticut) district, in the House of Representatives on the 5th ult., introduced the resolution creating the grade of general as a permanent part of the military establishment of the country, Mr. Shellabarger, of Ohio, made the following remarks:

The remark that I propose to make in connection with that is, that in no act in the life and service of General Grant, is, in my mind, is the sagacity and foresight of the distinguished Lieutenant General more plainly indicated than in the fact that nearly one month before the head of the nation had discovered that slavery must be stricken down before liberty could be saved, that great fact was announced by General Grant, and in terms fearless and distinct, the vigor of which startled the American mind at the time. It was announced by this pioneer upon the great subject of emancipation. I undertake to say here, in the face of the nation, that the sagacity of the Lieutenant General as a military commander was nowhere more completely vindicated than it was in that foresight that determined and announced in advance, that policy which is contained in the letter which I send to the clerk's desk and I ask to have read—a letter which bears date nearly a month before the proclamation of emancipation.

The clerk read as follows:

VICKSBURG, MISSISSIPPI, Aug. 30, 1862.

DEAR SIR: * * * The people of the North need not quarrel over the institution of slavery. What Vice President Stephens acknowledges the corner stone of the Confederacy is already knocked out. Slavery already dead cannot be resurrected. It would take a standing army to maintain slavery in the South if we were to make peace to-day, guaranteeing to the South all her former constitutional privileges. I never was an abolitionist—not even what could be called anti-slavery; but I try to judge fairly and honestly, and it became patent to my mind early in the rebellion that the North and South would never live at peace with each other except as one nation and that without slavery. As anxious as I am to see peace established I would not, therefore, be willing to see any settlement until this question is forever settled. Your sincere friend,
U. S. GRANT.
Hon. E. W. Washburne.

GEN. HOWARD WANTS A PRESENT.—This is the way Gen. Howard begged for the new Congregational church at Washington, at the meeting of the Congregational union at Brooklyn, the result of which was the subscription of $6,500 on the spot:

We must have this Washington church. We are poor. I believe I am the richest member of the congregation, and I recently had to borrow money to buy a house, which cost $8,000; and when I subscribed $1,000 for this church I did not know how I was to pay for it. I went home to see my old mother, and while I was gone I lectured two nights and made money enough to pay my subscription. You'll notice that I am egotistical. I am also jealous to a certain extent. I am jealous of my military reputation, and when that is assailed I want some friend to defend me. Now I don't think the public has used me quite right. Here in New York you have presented Gen. Grant with $100,000, and Philadelphia has given him a house and lot. Meade has been presented with a house and lot, and Sherman and Sheridan have had valuable presents. Now I want a present. I have found one or two, but now I want $50,000 to build this Washington church, and I promise you that every cent you subscribe to me I'll give to the Lord Jesus Christ.

INTERESTING MILITARY EXPEDITION.—The Virginia City Enterprise of June 12th says:

Through the kindness of Captain and Brevet Major D. J. Williams, U. S. A., Chief Quartermaster for the expedition on Gen. Halleck's staff, we are enabled to furnish the following particulars concerning the inspecting tour of the Department of the Pacific. Major-Gen. Halleck and staff, with Major General McDowell and staff, will leave San Francisco for Virginia on Wednesday next, arriving here on Friday morning. Gen. McDowell will inspect the military posts of this District, while Gen. Halleck will proceed to Sand Springs, from whence (through preparations already made by Maj. Williamson) they will proceed to Boise City, Idaho, under an escort of 100 men; thence attend to affairs and inquire throughout that region, proceed to Montana and Washington Territories, and down the Columbia river to Fort Vancouver, where the United States steamer Saginaw will await their arrival to convey them through Puget Sound, and perhaps the expedition may go as far as Kamschatka. The round trip will occupy four or five months. Joy go with the parties connected, as they won their laurels on the tented field.

IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE—SEMMES FORBIDDEN TO ACT AS JUDGE.—The following is the correspondence between the Military Commander of the Department of the Tennessee and the Secretary of War, relative to the late election of Admiral Raphael W. Semmes to the Judgeship of the Probate Court of Mobile:

UNITED STATES MILITARY TELEGRAPH, May 11, '66.
[By telegraph from Headquarters Military Division, Tennessee.]
To Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War, Washington (D. C.): Raphael Semmes has been appointed Probate Judge of Mobile. Shall I permit him to act?
GEORGE H. THOMAS, Maj. Gen. U. S. A., Com'dg.

UNITED STATES MILITARY TELEGRAPH, May 11, '66.
[By telegraph from Washington, D. C.]
To Major General George H. Thomas, commanding Military Division Tennessee: Your telegraph respecting Raphael W. Semmes has been presented to the President, who directs that Semmes be not permitted to hold or exercise the functions of Probate Judge in the city of Mobile, or any other civil or political office of trust while he remains unpardoned by the President. If at any time pardon shall be issued by him you will be notified thereof. The above instructions will be observed by you in respect to any other unpardoned rebels in your command.
EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.
By order of Major General GEORGE H. THOMAS.
WM. D. WHIPPLE, Brigadier General.

SEWARD, SANTA ANA AND MAXIMILIAN.—The Cincinnati Gazette charges on Seward a conspiracy between him and Santa Ana and Maximilian to give the place of the latter to the Mexican ex-President, and says:

"Those who have studied Mexican matters most closely here think the plan one to get Maximilian out of Mexico, and say it is to be accomplished in this way, with the full understanding on the part of Maximilian. Santa Ana is to be sent to Mexico ostensibly in the interest of the Liberals. He is then to go through the forms of an election as President of Mexico. Maximilian, pretending to regard this as the voice of the people, is to relinquish the Government to Santa Ana upon receiving certain indemnities for losses he has sustained in his attempt to establish a monarchy in Mexico."

There is another version of the Santa Ana programme, which we find in the New York News' Washington correspondence, and which runs thus:

"Those who are best informed upon the subject do not hesitate to say that there is a perfect understanding on the subject between Seward, Santa Ana and Senor Romero. It is said that Santa Ana will be here within ten days, and that Campbell is to be here to meet him and Senor Romero.

"It is said furthermore, and indeed I know this to be true, that great efforts are being made to get Congress to indorse the $50,000,000 loan. It is also said that this measure will be consummated within three weeks, and that Santa Ana will proceed at once to Mexico, accompanied by Campbell. Backed up by this Congressional indorsement, and under the quasi encouragement of the United States Government, on arriving in Mexico he will announce himself as the liberator of the country, and it is expected that his old popularity will rally around him both of the Liberal factions, and that he will be joined by thousands of volunteers from the United States. It is expected that he will expel Maximilian and the French, and cause himself to be proclaimed President of the restored Mexican Republic.'"

HOW THE "RADICALS" HATE THE SOUTH.—A few days ago, a memorial was presented to the House of Representatives from citizens of Alabama, setting forth that many were suffering from want, and that considerable numbers of others had actually died of starvation, whereupon Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, one of the radicals so cordially hated by Southern politicians, offered the following resolution, which was passed:

"Resolved, That the President be requested to instruct the proper officer or officers of the Bureau of Refugees to inquire into the condition of said districts, and any other district of the insurgent States, in which such suffering may be said to exist, and to relieve the people thereof, and provide them with corn and other seed for planting a crop, sufficient for an annual supply of each family requiring such relief."

This resolution was followed by a liberal appropriation for the Freedmen's Bureau, so the President will be furnished with the means necessary to carry out the benevolent objects of the resolution.

The Detroit Press names the party headed by Blair, Randall and Jim Lane, as the "Lucrative party." This is certainly an appropriate and significant baptism for the reason that but few, very few will be found in the ranks of that party who are not attracted by the expectation of pay. Let them be known as the Lucrative hereafter.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 25, 1866

Remedy for Illegal Voting

Stimulated by the hope of carrying the late election in this State the Democratic party unscrupulously employed every agency within its reach to accomplish that result. Chief among the means they resorted to was the old time Democratic habit of illegal voting. They expected the election to be very close and supposed that by the aid of the votes they could bring from abroad into counties where they had control, they could figure up a majority for their ticket. This game was played principally in Jackson and Umatilla counties. In the latter there is prima facia evidence of fraud, which is very strong. Members of the Democratic party, even who were not aware of the extent of the gerrymandering that was contemplated in Umatilla, were surprized at the result in that county. There is no way of guarding against these abuses except by a registry law. At the next general election the Democratic party will practice the same game again hoping by such means to overbalance the majority which is against them. We do not mean to say that we believe a close investigation would not discover any fraudulent votes for the Union candidates, but we do say it is our belief that for one illegal Union vote, five Democratic votes of the same sort could be found. A registry law would affect all parties alike, and need not be considered a partisan measure, though if a measure of this kind is proposed in the Legislature, we presume it will get none but Union votes. We are satisfied that the Union party is unanimously in favor of a registry law and that its expects the Legislature this fall to provide one.

The poor pitiful flunkey Simonton who writes letters from the east to the San Francisco Bulletin, and who seems to have no higher ambition than to be somebody's Tom Pinch, has long been sounding the base string of humility to appease the wrath of the rebels. In a late letter he says :

> The just indignation against treason and traitors which sustained and nerved the national arm during the military struggle, should give place to charity and magnanimity towards even those whose prejudices against us have not been extinguished by the punishment already received at our hands, or by the crushing mortification of their overwhelming defeat. The war is over. We are masters in the physical conflict. That is enough, and the war passion should give place to generous consideration for foes whose gallantry and endurance even in a bad cause, command our admiration and make us proud to remember that they are our countrymen.

We don't know of any except Copperheads, the class whom Carl Schurz calls "lucrative politicians" and poor snivelers like Simonton who are content to own a political master, who are "proud to remember" that the fiends of Fort Pillow and Andersonville are "our countrymen." Every true patriot blushes to remember that they who began the late causeless rebellion, and who conducted it with such fiendish atrocity, are countrymen of his. "The indignation against treason and traitors which sustained the national arm through the great struggle," is not a whit less just now than it was then. Treason is no less a crime now than it was three or five years ago, and if we forget this fact, we can never justify ourselves for quelling the rebellion.

MUDDLED.—One of the most remarkable logical arguments is that of the Copperheads who claim that the rebel States were so much out of the Union that they were "foreign territory," and yet for purposes of representation, "they have never been out of the Union at all!" What with their desire to get the rebels fixed upon some status which shall clear them of the charge of crime in rebelling, and at the same time, retain them upon some other status which will admit them to representation as a right, the Copperheads are in a serious muddle. Now the rebels are out, and now they are in. Now they are "foreigners," and now they are "citizens," without being naturalized or "enabled." Now they are not amenable to United States laws because they belonged to another "sovereignty," and now they are entitled to all the rights of American citizens because they have never been anything else. All this may be very good logic, but it is certainly original with the Copperheads. Aristotle, Bacon, Locke, and such fogies lived too soon. They should have deferred their births, and lived now,—that they might have sat at the feet and learned of these modern teachers. They might then have gone out of the world with a fair smattering of logic as is logic.

CRUSHING LOGIC.—According to the philosophy of the Democracy, as expounded by our neighbor, the political leaders of a State, assembled in Convention, may vote their State out of the Union, repudiate the authority of the United States, form other political connections and make war on the Government of the Union, and afterwards shield themselves from punishment for treason on the plea that they (the very persons who planned the scheme of separation, passed the ordinance of secession and led the insurgent armies) merely acted under the orders of their State! "Acted under the orders of their State," when the order of secession was issued by themselves! A body of turbulent politicians may, by their influence and votes, cause their State to secede, and then throw upon the State all responsibility for the act! Nobody is to blame, and nobody can be punished—not even the members of a Convention who may vote for secession, for isn't it the act of the State! This is the Herald's position.

GRANT COUNTY.—The official canvass of Grant county shows that the result there is materially different from what was first reported. By official count, Woods has 63 majority in the county. The balance of the Union State ticket has about the same vote. The whole Union county ticket in Grant is also elected, thus giving us one more Senator and two more Representatives than previously reported. We have therefore eight majority in the Senate and five majority in the House. With a majority of thirteen on joint ballot, there can be no doubt of the election of a thorough Unionist for United States Senator.

Official returns have now been received from all the counties except Umatilla. Gov. Woods' majority is 127, which is more likely to be increased than diminished on the final count.

Our neighbor was out with a ponderous two column "leader" yesterday for "Sunday reading," on that new and hitherto unattempted subject, the negro. Now to quiet his fears about "negro equality," we promise him and all others concerned that when they acknowledge they can no longer protect themselves against the superior energy of the black race, the Union party, always ready to do something for oppressed humanity will take up their case and defend them, and will even go to the extent if necessary of providing them with a Civil Rights Bill.

Alexander Stephens writes to his friends in Georgia that he thinks the perpetuity of constitutional liberty depends on the result of the fall elections in the North. We are sorry to see Aleck so despondent. He should remember that a five years war in which he played a conspicuous part—behind the scenes—succeeded very poorly in destroying constitutional liberty, and that the soldiers and staunch men who then preserved it will keep it quite as safely as though it were turned over to Aleck and Jeff. Constitutional liberty Aleck, is about as secure as ever. Cheer up Aleck!

COOS COUNTY.—A telegram from Salem, last evening states that the official return from Coos gives Gov. Woods fifty majority. Lockhart, Union Representative, elected—majority not stated.

The Silver City Index says: A fatal affray occurred between Ed. Bainbridge and [illegible] McRae [illegible] in Burnt River Valley about twenty five miles from this place in Baker county, during which resulted in the instant death of the latter. We are indebted for the following particulars from a person who was present. It appears that Bainbridge, [illegible] and McRae were washing [illegible] a ditch as they were returning to work from dinner they discovered Bainbridge in the ditch with his gun. He then told them not to come there to work or he would shoot them, at the same time pointing his gun at them. Hawley and McRae were accompanied by another man. After some consultation, they decided approaching the ditch where the armed man was threatening to shoot them, starting off in another direction, McRae leading his horse. After going some eighty yards, Bainbridge sat down in company with the hired man laying his gun in the road, when within a few minutes Bainbridge fired from the ditch, the ball striking McRae near the center of the head just above the ear, causing instant death. The foregoing are substantially the facts as stated to us by Hawley.

We hear accounts from various sections of the country that the continued rains are sadly damaging the early crops of grain. The heavier growths are already in many places lodged."

FROM WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

We obtain the following items from the Vancouver Register of the 23d.

The citizens of Olympia, Walla Walla and this place, in this Territory are making preparations to celebrate the coming Fourth with appropriate ceremonies and festivities.

A Washington correspondent of the Walla Walla Statesman says that Judge Lander, Major Fitzhugh, Major [illegible] ton and Gov. Evans are in Washington.

Rain is still the order of the day, and again the river is on the rise. It had fallen so much that some of the farmers, we understand, had already replanted their fields. A second rise is discouraging and will prove very disastrous, if the water should become as high as the reported amount of snow, and condition of the streams above, render more than possible.

The Supreme Court of the Territory is in special session at Olympia. There are about a dozen cases on the docket.

Judge Darwin is assigned to one of the Sound Districts. He arrived at Olympia in time to occupy his place on the Supreme Court bench.

A grand Anniversary Ball is to take place July 4th at the Metropolis Hall, Vancouver.

The Ladies Fair and Festival for the benefit of the M. E. Church Parsonage will take place as heretofore noticed at Metropolis Hall Thursday evening.

MURDER NEAR FORT JONES.—The Yreka Journal of the 16th gives the following particulars of an atrocious murder:

"On last Monday morning the citizens of Fort Jones were horrified by the discovery of a human body, lying in the road a little above Hoopersville on Indian creek, which bore evidence of having been the subject of a most fiendish and deliberate butchery, it bearing eleven knife wounds several of which would have been necessarily fatal. Upon investigation being made by a Coroner's jury, the following facts were disclosed. The name of the murdered man was Michael Reedy, for many years he had been a resident of the neighborhood, and had been engaged in mining, he was well known by nearly every citizen as a quiet, peaceable and inoffensive man, one not likely to have difficulty with any one. During the previous week he had sold his claim and cabin to some Chinese miners and had received his pay, and was known to have near $200 about his person. On Saturday he had been spending the day with his former partner and some other Frenchmen in drinking and carousing, and about nine o'clock that evening, in their company, started for their home about a half mile distant, this was the last time he was seen alive by any one else, and one of the party made the pretended discovery of the body the next morning. Instantly upon the fact of the murder being made public, the companions of the murdered man pointed out two Mexicans as the probable murderers, alleging that they were the persons who started home with Reedy, and that they were the last persons seen with him. Thorough investigation was made with an eye to this view of the case, which clearly showed the innocence of the Mexicans, and leaves the case in as much doubt as ever.

The Richmond Examiner is opposed to the proposition to make Gen. Grant a candidate for the Presidency, and says he "would cut a ludicrous figure as President." When Grant was made Commander-in-Chief of the army, the Examiner thought he "cut a ludicrous figure," but it turned out 'twas t'other fellow who did the ludicrous. The late rebels evidently do not relish the idea of seeing Gen. Grant step into the place where they would so willingly put the fossil Johnson again.

THE SOUTHERN TEMPER.—Judge Underwood's charge to the Grand Jury in Richmond in relation to the crime of treason, waked up the Petersburg Index to the following:

> We have tried to do justice to the absurd, blasphemous cowardly, devilish, empirical, fanatical, ghoulish horrible, ignorant, Jacobinical, knavish, lily livered, mendacious, nondescript, odious, poisonous, querulous, rascally, sycophantic traitorous, unrighteous, venal, witless, extravagant Yankeeish zero, whose "charge" we publish today, but we despair. The truth is, we are not equal to the occasion.

> We have attempted several times to state some indisputable legal propositions.—Herald

Give over the attempt, Boriah. You are out of your "normal spear" when you attempt an indisputable proposition. Your "ignorance" is in the way on one hand, (we are quoting your own favorite argument) and your "dishonesty" on the other. Better stick to your profound two column essays on the "nigger."

The Herald says in substance, that if a State secedes from the Union, the persons who vote her out are not punishable for treason, because they have only acted under the authority of their State. The State, not the people, or the members of the secession Convention, is to blame. Jack Bunsby, who could deliver "an opinion as is an opinion," couldn't beat that.

The Lafayette Courier isn't pleased with the result of the election in Yamhill county. It accuses the opponents of fraud, and says: "Give us fair play, and if you beat us, we submit." Well now, it is indeed very kind of the Courier to propose to submit. Had it resolved not to submit, we tremble to think what the consequences might have been.

Colonel Kelly has been oftener beaten than any professional candidate in Oregon. Defeat has become chronic with him. Hereafter he may be considered invincible—as a rear guard.

It will be seen by the election tables that McPherson's majority in the State is larger than that of any other man on the State ticket. The reason was, he had no opposition.

Second Lieut. J. R. Hardenburg, 9th U. S. Infantry, formerly of the Washington Territory Infantry on duty in this Department, is now on duty at Camp Bidwell.

O'Meara before the election said one of our candidates was all bark. O'Meara since the election, is all grunt.

The Monadnock, lying in the stream at Vallejo street wharf is the general topic of conversation to day. There has been a perfect stream of visitors to her all day among them quite a number of ladies. Steamers, tugs, small boats and every description of smaller craft, are in great demand. The ferry boats at every departure from their wharves steal around and near to her allowing their passengers a sight as a great curiosity. Officers and men take great pains in describing to visitors the workings of her machinery, turrets, etc., and are highly delighted with the success of her which has been fully demonstrated to them on her recent passage.

Weather clear, cool and pleasant.

NEW STEAMERS FOR THE OREGON TRADE—TESTIMONIALS OF PASSENGERS.—When committing one's self to a voyage at sea, it is something essential to have confidence in the commander of the ship which is to bear you along. That there has for years been a want of confidence in the old ships plying in this trade all are familiar; but now that we have two new and reliable steamers making regular trips here from California, under command of tried and tried sea-faring men, it is nothing unusual for passengers to offer public expressions of their thanks for the treatment received on board of them and the confidence they entertain for the commanders. The appearance of the new, safe and worthy steamer Montana, under the charge of Capt. Kelly, has been the means of drawing in favor of our State a feeling which we had hitherto supposed did not have an existence in the hearts of those monopolists who held in the palm of their hands the vitality of our commerce. The principle strictly appeared to be, previous to the arrival of the Montana, that any kind of a craft was good enough for the Oregon trade, and any old worn out hulk which had spoiled, or become unsuited to other localities was turned up the coast to carry "Web-foot" and the apples and bacon of the Oregon emporium. It has been patent to the most irrefutable believer in these things, that nearly every old tub which has arrived on the coast, has been bought up to prevent her from conflicting with the interests of the old companies; but when the new steamer Montana came out she was not so easily purchased, and her running here has proven a perfect thorn in the sides of the monopolists. They begin to believe that she is, what she is, permanently established in the trade. With this view of matters the California Steam Navigation Company have seen fit to place a more popular commander, Captain Wm. Metzger, on board their steamship Oregon, formerly under control of Capt. A. M. Burns. That the change was opportune none deny. The California, Oregon and Mexico Company, in order to make a reach in the right direction, have now furnished Capt. Francis Connor, long and favorably regarded in this region of country by all who know him, with a first class ship, the Oriflamme, which reached her wharf on the first trip yesterday morning at 3 o'clock. There was a time, not long since, when, had Capt. Connor arrived here in such a ship as the Oriflamme, all people would have turned out en masse, with a band of music, to congratulate him. As it is, the Oriflamme comes here second—the Montana having first won the approbation and the confidence of our people. But while this is so, we are glad to see Capt. Connor in command of so fine a craft, and did we have sufficient reason to believe that the Oriflamme would not be taken away from us at the very first opportunity offered, we should be the more inclined to extend to her a welcome in gratitude. As we said before, however, she comes in second—at a late date—the Montana supplies our wants now very well, and soon the steamship Oregonian said to be equal to the best vessel ever built in New York, will be here to transact the first-class business for us. If it is found the Oregonian does not come, then let us have the Oriflamme, Montana and Idaho, all new steamers. The Oriflamme is a superb ship, and was visited yesterday nearly all day by parties of ladies and gentlemen, who felt a strong desire to say something in reference to her, and congratulate Captain Connor on his success in getting, at last, a ship he is deserving of. We took a survey of her and will include the following description as given by the Bulletin, which is accurate. The Bulletin says: "The Oriflamme is a side-wheel steamer with two masts, and square rigged forward. She was built in New York, in 1864, and intended for the Government service as a gunboat, but the unmistakable signs of the approaching collapse of the rebellion rendered it unnecessary to increase the number of such steamers, and her owners fitted her for the China trade. She made the run to the Chinese coast in remarkably short time, and remained in that trade about a year, displaying sea-going qualities in several typhoons, which gave to her a character for staunchness not possessed by many vessels, as their shattered wrecks have sadly testified. Upon being purchased by their present owners she was brought to this port, arriving here some four months ago. Since that time she has received a thorough overhauling, and would now hardly be recognized as the same steamer. The little cabin that formerly occupied a portion of the upper deck has been entirely removed, and a new one of large dimensions and excellent in all its appointments erected instead. That part of the deck forward of the wheels is used for the officers' quarters, while that abaft is known as the upper saloon, and is fitted up in fine style, the work being painted a glossy white with gilt mouldings. This line contains 28 large, airy staterooms, bridal apartments, etc., all fitted up with an eye to comfort, well lighted and of cheerful appearance. On the deck underneath this saloon, there has been prepared a ladies' saloon containing 10 staterooms, of the same general appearance as those above. The passenger accommodations of the steamer provide berths for 110 first-class passengers. The steerage will accommodate from 250 to 300. Above the upper saloon is the promenade deck. On this deck, forward, is the pilot-house, with the Captain's room adjoining, a door opening between the two. In navigating the north coast this close proximity of the Captain to the wheel is very desirable. Often do these commanders remain on active duty during the entire trip, sometimes barely closing their eyes to sleep between San Francisco and Portland. About midships on the promenade deck is another saloon, divided in the center lengthwise. These apartments communicate with each other by means of doors, and with the promenade deck and grand saloon. One of the apartments is designed for a gentlemen's smoking room, and the other for a ladies' sitting room. They are both pleasant rooms, and no doubt will be quite popular, as being a new feature on our coasting steamers. These rooms are each 21 by 11 feet. The dimensions of the Oriflamme are as follows: Length, over all, 240 feet; breadth of beam, 33½ feet, depth of hold, 21 feet, freight capacity, 150 tons. She is provided with a beam engine of 66 inch bore and 10 feet stroke, which is nominally about 250 horse power. She has also two tubular boilers, 25 feet long and 10 feet in diameter. As she has not been measured since her alterations and increased accommodations, her exact tonnage is not known, but, supposed to be 1,200. The Oriflamme is a fine looking steamship, internally and externally, and, it is expected, will make a good sailer. She will be under command of Capt. Francis Connor, one of the oldest and most tried commanders on the Northern coast." In this connection we insert the following to Capt. Connor from the passengers of the Oriflamme:

ON BOARD STEAMSHIP "ORIFLAMME,"
PORTLAND, June 24, 1866.

To Captain Francis Connor—

SIR:—The undersigned, passengers from San Francisco on the new steamship Oriflamme, on this her first trip to Portland, before taking leave of the ship, desire to express to you their unqualified approbation of her behavior on the voyage, showing herself eminently capable as a sea boat,—staunch and steady in the roughest weather which we experienced, and in the highest degree, comfortable for passengers in every department. The saloons, cabins and staterooms of the ship have excellent ventilation, and their arrangement is exceedingly convenient. She is a noble ship, and we have the highest satisfaction in seeing such a vessel placed upon this route, where a really first class steamer has been so much needed. To the officers of the ship so well and so favorably known to all travelers on this coast, we tender our acknowledgments for the uniform courtesy and kind attention received at their hands during the voyage just completed.

Very respectfully, &c., Frank Perkins, Charles Holman, W. T. Shanahan, Dr. S. B. Farnham, Sylvester Farrell, A. Hestenburg, H. Mansen, Wm. McKeill, R. H. Bacon, H. Dow, J. V. DeCamp, Isaac H. Cary, E. B. Hastings, D. Woodruff, Thos Beach, F. Weatherspoon.

The following testimonial of respect was addressed to Capt. J. H. Kelley by passengers of the Montana.

ON BOARD STEAMSHIP "MONTANA,"
COLUMBIA RIVER, June 23, 1866.

Capt. J. H. Kelly:

SIR:—We the undersigned passengers on board the steamer Montana on the voyage from San Francisco, desiring to give an expression of our thankfulness and gratitude for the care and attention bestowed upon us by the officers and those connected with the above vessel, take this opportunity of so doing, (in the form of a testimonial,) as follows:

We testify that the efforts of the officers and men were directed to the furtherance of the comfort and safety of all on board; that the civil and orderly conduct of the crew is worthy of complimentary notice; that cleanliness throughout the whole ship was an important feature, that the table was supplied with delicacies not often found in a steamship, and served in a manner at once palatable and superior in quality; that the berths and bedding were both alike comfortable, and the rooms well ventilated and supplied with usual furniture of state-rooms, that, in short, the gentlemanly deportment of the Captain, John H. Kelly, well deserves the praise of the passengers. Alone induced by a grateful feeling, we subscribe ourselves: Wm. Braden, J. A. Ripperton, Wm. O'Hara, E. L. Stone, H. Smith, J. M. Strowbridge, J. W. Butterfield, F. C. Horning and 54 others.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task.
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day.
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
IS HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air.
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent.
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind.
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysentric pains
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Billious complaints, those tedious ills
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Bread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these, though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the Body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To househo lds long, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield,
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet marshy ground,
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle aged and old,
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy,
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present,
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior products as for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Callao Commodore Rodgers Report of the Battle

WASHINGTON, May 27. The following dispatches from Commodore Rodgers were received to day at the Navy Department

UNITED STATES STEAMSHIP VANDERBILT, }
AT SEA, May 10 1866 }

To Gideon Welles Secretary of the Navy—Sir I have the honor to report that on the 7th of April the Spanish Admiral Mendez Nunez addressed a letter to the diplomatic corps in Lima declaring that the port of Callao was blockaded from that date: also another justifying the course of Spain and announcing that he should give neutral inhabitants four days to remove their persons and property previous to the bombardment of the city on the 30th of April. Admiral Pearson anchored our men of war out of gunshot of the fortifications of Callao. Merchant vessels had some days before taken up positions out of the way of hostile operations. It was thought that the attack would commence on the first of May, when the time expired given to neutrals for removal but on the second of May about 10 o'clock A. M, the Spanish fleet got under weigh. Some time was spent in drawing their lines, and about 11 o'clock the squadron moved in two directions to attack the defenses of Callao the first division under Admiral Nunez, consisting of the ironclad Numancia, of seven thousand tons burden and the frigates Blanca and Resolucion moved along the Don Carozzo inland to attack the batteries on the south side of Callao while the frigates Villa de Madrid, Berenguela and Almanza pressing in front of the national and merchant vessels anchored in the bay, steamed at first slowly toward the Peruvian batteries on the north side of the city.

As these vessels approached they accelerated their speed and ran swiftly into position. At 12 15 the first gun was fired, I thought from the Numancia, quickly followed by two from a battery on the south side. The Spanish fleet carried about two hundred and forty guns, mostly thirty-two pounders. The Numancia was armed with sixty eight pounders, as was also the three gun corvette Vincedora, which was held in reserve to tow if necessary, and also, I presume, to cover the transports.

The Peruvian batteries numbered in the aggregate forty five guns, five of them 450-pounders (Blakeley s), and four Armstrong guns, 500-pounders mounted on the top of iron turrets, the rest were 32 pounders. Sand bags were extensively used in making the batteries, to which were added brick masonry and some of adobe. The firing soon became of a warm character. About ten o'clock the Villa de Madrid let her jib and trysails, and ran out of the fight. She made signals, and was taken in tow by the Vencedora, with steam escaping abundantly below. She was soon followed by the Berenguela, listed over to one side, and with smoke pouring from her ports. Just before she retired a puff of black dust had shot out at her water line on the side away from the battery. A ball had gone through her coal bunkers, I thought, and through both sides. We saw men over the side attempting to protect with canvass the ragged hole, which seemed some two feet square.

The Almanza moved to join the first division engaged with the southern batteries. Resolucion and Blanca at about 2 30 steamed away from the southern division, leaving the Almanza and Numancia still engaged. These vessels drew off at fifteen minutes before five o'clock, the Peruvians firing at them as long as their guns could reach them. The action brought on by the Spaniards was waged on both sides with courage and persistency. The Peruvian guns, which were all en barbette never ceased firing, and the Spaniards, I believe, only left off when their ammunition was exhausted. The killed and wounded in the batteries were said to number eighty. In one of the iron-clad batteries a shell exploded, igniting other powder and disabling the guns. By this explosion Galvez the Peruvian Minister of War and Marine, was blown to atoms. Next to the Dictator in power, of liberal views and marked ability, his loss will prove a serious one to the country. His Excellency the Dictator is said to have been everywhere in the thickest of the fight, animating, encouraging and directing the Peruvian batteries. I do not know the damage done to the Spanish fleet, but the loss was no doubt heavy. It was obvious that several of the vessels had been badly punished. The Spaniards, we thought, did not go very near the batteries, many of their shots falling into the water. The presence of torpedoes may have inspired caution. In coming away from a farewell visit Admiral Pearson picked up one floating adrift near our vessels. It was a red keg containing about fifty pounds of wet powder, with some yards of insulated wire attached inside to the arrangements for explosion by a galvanic battery. The senior Surgeon, Dr. Peck, was sent to the Villa de Madrid and Berenguela as soon as they anchored, with offers of assistance. His services were accepted by the Surgeon of the Villa de Madrid but on board the Berenguela the officers gathered around him at the gangway and said they were deeply grateful, but needed no help. When the Numancia anchored, Dr. Johnson was sent on board, while Dr. Peck, who had returned to the Vanderbilt, went on shore to tender his services to the Peruvians. I was sorry to learn through Dr. Johnson, that Admiral Nunez had been badly wounded by splinters, no fewer than eight injuries having been received in the head, arms, legs, and side. The Doctor was not permitted to see the Admiral, and I apprehend that he has been seriously hurt.

The Peruvian batteries were but little injured. The authorities on shore were confident on the morning following the bombardment they would be better prepared than at the first to resist an attack. There were two iron-clad vessels on the side of the Peruvians—one, the monitor Loa, with a single gun, a sixty-eight-pounder, in a turret, and one, the Victoria, built in the shape of the Confederate iron-clads, covered with railroad iron and having a sixty-eight pounder at each end. The monitor was struck ten times, but received no damage. I do not know how the other fared. There were several small men-of-war, but their artillery was too light to be used and they were secured in the mole.

I have the honor to be your obedient serv't,
JOHN RODGERS, Commodore.

Union League of America—Meeting of the Illinois Grand Council.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Illinois Grand Council, U. L. A., held in the Senate Chamber, at Springfield, Illinois, on the 16th day of May, 1866, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted, viz:

WHEREAS, The Union League of America was organized in the month of June, A. D. 1862, for the purpose of aiding and strengthening the Federal Government in its terrible struggle with armed traitors, and for the purpose of making more efficient the services of our valiant soldiers by shielding them from the fire in the rear opened upon them by Copperheads and sympathizers with rebels, and whereas, said organization of the Union League of America contributed powerful support to the Government by encouraging the loyal to persevere in the good fight, by emboldening the irresolute, by promoting enlistments to fill up the decimated ranks, by enforcing the laws, by creating a healthy and vigorous spirit of Unionism among the masses, by discountenancing disloyal actions or faint-hearted utterances, by filling the offices with true and loyal men and whereas, the labors of two millions of "Union Leaguers" never ceased or slackened until the last armed rebel either bit the dust or laid down his arms, and the national flag floated over every inch of American soil and peace was restored, and whereas, recent events occurring in high places have alarmed good and true Union men with the fear that the fair and legitimate fruits of the great victory over a stupendous but causeless and wicked rebellion may be snatched from their hands, and that the ocean of precious blood shed and the mountain of treasure expended may go for naught, therefore,

Resolved, That it is the imperative duty of the Union men to relight the fires upon their council altars, to revive the Union League of America throughout the State, in order to defend and preserve at the ballot-box and in the halls of legislation what our soldiers won on the battle field.

Resolved, That only loyal men should represent the nation in Congress, and that Congress should be the judge thereof; that treason should be made odious and not respectable; that traitors should be made to take back seats, and the ringleaders of the rebellion should be punished, and that all loyal citizens of the United States, irrespective of race or color, should be protected in their inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Resolved, That the President and Secretary of the Grand Council of the Union League of America, of Illinois, be and hereby instructed to issue a call to all the county and subordinate Councils of the Union League of America in this State to elect delegates to a meeting of the Grand Council of the Union League of America, to be held in the Representatives' Hall, in the city of Springfield, on Tuesday the 7th day of August, 1866 that the delegates thereto shall consist of the officers of each County Council, and that each subordinate Council shall be entitled to one delegate thereat.

The secret of Geo Peabody's wealth is said to have been the great confidence he had in the securities of the United States, not only during the war but long before it. When Western State stocks were at a very low price, and nobody abroad would buy them, because no one had confidence in them, Mr. Peabody purchased freely

Reverdy Johnson is afraid that if Congress objects to the President's indiscriminate removal from office, it will bring on a war with Austria! No cards.

The Sacramento Bee of the 18th, says: Major General Rosecrans arrived in Marysville yesterday. He is on a visit to Plumas county, and will then visit various mining localities in Yuba.

The Quincy (Ill.) Whig and Republican wants to know if the President will cling to the party who made him Vice President or go over to the party who made him President. That's the question.

In the Supreme Court at Boston, John M. Way who sued for $20,000 damages for having been compelled by some of his neighbors, who thought him disloyal, to raise a flag and make a loyal speech, has recovered $100.

Chicago is rapidly becoming one of the most splendid cities in America. It already has an Orphan House which it took New York and Philadelphia years to build one. Its number of splendid buildings is rapidly increasing.

It is said that Jeff. Davis expresses the opinion that he will not live through the summer, unless he is released from imprisonment. His victims at Andersonville, doubtless, entertained similar views of their own fate, and with much better reason, but, Jeff gave himself no concern about their apprehensions.

The section in which lumber is found in Colorado has twenty five saw mills, and ten flour mills have been set up within the past few years. The quartz mills in the state are quoted at over one hundred and fifty, costing $10,000,000. They average, if all were running on medium ores not less than $21,000,000 per year. Wages rule at five dollars per day. In addition, a resident of Golden City is soon to erect a blast furnace and rolling mill at that place.

A Copperhead paper says Lee is the peer of General Grant, that "most people say he is far ahead of him, but his hands are tied just now." That "let Grant carry the negro banner it he will we can beat him in spite of the prestige he may bring into the contest." If the Democracy can beat General Grant they will have to do better fighting than they did at Donelson, Pittsburg Landing, Vicksburg, Lookout Mountain, and from the Wilderness to the Five Forks.

A dispatch from Wheeling, West Virginia, May 25th, says: "The election in West Virginia yesterday, for the ratification or rejection of the constitutional amendment disfranchising persons engaged in the rebellion, passed off quietly. Returns from the interior counties come in very slowly. Full returns received from eleven counties thus far indicate large majorities for ratification. Wheeling City and Ohio county gave over 300 majority for rejection."

A Fortress Monroe correspondent says: "In the course of the day's visits, the fact was developed that the stories about the failing health of Jeff Davis are greatly exaggerated. He is furnished every luxury the market affords and every modern improvement for comfort and ease has been placed in his room—35 by 22. His wife and children are allowed unrestricted association with him and with the balmy breezes of Old Point, Jeff's situation is not so disastrous and hazardous as some would have the public believe."

A writer in the New York Observer, who has been studying Webster's new "Unabridged" Dictionary, expresses a regret that the lexicographer's definition of the word "boil" had not met the eyes of the new version people before they translated the Book of Job, as it would have been so beautiful to say instead of boils, "And Satan smote Job with "circumscribed subcutaneous inflammations, characterized by pointed pustular tumors, and suppurating with central cores.""

The new line of English steamships between Panama, New Zealand and Australia, will be opened on June 24th by the dispatch from Panama of the pioneer vessel to Wellington, New Zealand, at which point connection will be made with the company's intercolonial steamer for Auckland, Otago, Nelson, Canterbury, Sydney, Melbourne, etc. The time from Panama to Wellington will be twenty eight days. from San Francisco forty one, Panama to Sidney or Melbourne, thirty-six days, from San Francisco, forty nine. The first cabin rates from Panama to Wellington will be $260, second class, $150. To Sidney or Melbourne, $275 and $175. Steerage rates not yet fixed; will be proportionate.

The American Journal of Mining says: "Mr Nobel is giving his attention to the best method of rendering nitro-glycerine innocuous, when stored or in transit. He states that by mixing this powerful agent with methylic alcohol (a cheap spirit popularly known as spirit of wood,) the nitro-glycerine is rendered unexplosive, either by percussion or heat. When required for use water is added, which absorbs the spirit, and the oil sinks to the bottom of the vessel, whence it is drawn by a syphon and its explosive nature thereupon found to be restored. Experiments for testing the value of this discovery were made on the 5th inst, in this city, (New York,) which are said to have been very satisfactory."

A private letter from a Springfield mechanic, who is employed on the St. Petersburg and Moscow railroad says: "The man who saved the Emperor's life is the lion of the day. The Emperor took him home to the palace, introduced him to the royal family and to his generals, and made him a nobleman at once. The merchants of St. Petersburg made him a present of a mansion in the city which cost fifty thousand silver roubles. The fortunate man has a wife and one child. There were two days of jollification and one day of thanksgiving and praise at the Emperor's deliverance, with illuminations and general demonstrations of joy. There has been no such time in St. Petersburg since it became a city."

The Chicago Republican, edited by Charles A. Dana, who was Assistant Secretary of War at the time Jeff. Davis was captured, says of the toggery worn by the rebel chieftain upon that memorable occasion; "When caught he was entirely enveloped in a large and ample dyan sectum cloak, belonging to his wife, which fell to his heels, and was buttoned up to his neck in front, having its hood spread over his soft felt hat so as altogether to conceal his face. In external appearance this disguise made him seem to be a woman, and that it was assumed in the hope that he might thus escape, there can be no question. The garment captured with him is safe, and will, we presume, be produced whenever it may be necessary to prove the circumstances of his capture."

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Lexington, Kentucky, tells the following story. Soon after the expiration of Mr Breckinridge's term of office as Vice President, and he returned to his house in Kentucky, his State then wavering between loyalty and rebellion, he received a letter, upon opening which his countenance became as pallid as marble, and his manly frame quivered as though he was suffering from an ague fit. What was the terrible import of that letter? What did it contain to so utterly overcome him? A single name, but one of ill omen, it was the autograph of "B. Arnold." The ex Vice President, unable to conceal his emotion in the anguish of his spirit, exclaimed "It is too late!" and the next day escaped to the rebels, so closely pursued that he left his horse and servant behind.

LINCOLN'S RECONSTRUCTION.—Persisting that Johnson follows President Lincoln's policy Blair cites Louisiana in proof, but ignores that Lincoln required negro suffrage in Louisiana, and that he also declared his terms in general would be amnesty for rebellion and suffrage for the colored man. See Lincoln's letter, which we have repeatedly published, to General Wadsworth, during the battles of the Wilderness.

Blair follows Johnson, but not Lincoln, in laying great stress upon the abstraction "that the Southern States are in the Union," and thereupon building an argument that there is no right to exact security against future rebellion. Every reader knows how almost endlessly Johnson harps upon this one string, as the controlling note in the whole controversy. To show how thoroughly opposite was President Lincoln's view of this abstraction we quote the following from his speech at Washington, April 11, 1865, just after the evacuation of Petersburg and Richmond. He then said

By these recent successes, the reinauguration of the national authority reconstruction which has had a large share of thought from the first is pressed much more closely upon our attention. * * * I have been shown a letter on this subject, supposed to be an able one, in which the writer expresses regret that my mind has not seemed to be definitely fixed on the question whether the seceded States, so called are in the Union or out of it. * * * Whatever it may hereafter become that question is bad as the basis of a controversy and good for nothing at all—a merely pernicious abstraction. We all agree that the seceded States, so called are out of their practical relation with the Union and that the sole object of the Government, civil and military, in regard to those States, is to again get them into that proper practical relation. I believe it is not only possible, but in fact easier to do this without deciding, or even considering whether those States have ever been out of the Union, than with it. Finding themselves safely at home, it would, be utterly immaterial whether they had ever been abroad. Let us all join in the acts necessary to restoring the proper practical relations between these States and the Union and each forever after indulge his own opinion whether, in doing the acts he brought the States from without into the Union, or only gave them proper assistance they never having been out of it."

This, with the exception of the emancipation amendment and of securities for the freedmen, all of which Lincoln religiously insisted upon, together with his known and unhesitating [illegible] Congress in every measure relating to the rebel States—shows the position of Johnson's predecessor. None more than he wished for restoration, but he saw that there were precedent steps indispensable and that the plea that the States were in the Union whatever the theoretical merit of the formula could have no practical application but to embarrass and delay. Yet it is the basis of that "merely pernicious abstraction," as the sagacious patriot justly stigmatized it, that Andrew Johnson planted himself in hostility to Congress and the Republicans of the country only to embarrass, delay and complicate the work of reconstruction.—St. Louis Democrat May 21

The "National Johnson Club" is in trouble. Formed in spite of the powers of the Radical North it has incurred the displeasure of the Conservative South, whose approval it would concede everything to win. Its manifesto, partly intended for ex-rebel consumption and favor, unfortunately spoke of the rebellion as a crime, branded as such by the whole world. This was too much for even the Jackson Clarion the best tempered paper published in Mississippi, and perhaps in the South. It has a very different opinion of the rebellion and does not think the world has branded it at all. But even admitting that the world does condemn the rebels, the latter will not accept the verdict but as the Clarion says would seat themselves by the graves of their noble dead, and "in scorn of the world, cherish the more the weed that grew there as more honorable than any laurel that ever bound the brow of a triumphant hero."—Cincinnati Gazette

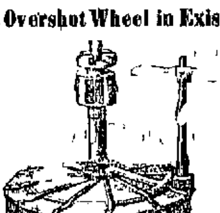
WATER WHEELS.
POWER PLEDGED EQUAL
TO THE
Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.



LEFFEL'S
American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. We may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way. Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!
The Remedy for Curing
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,
Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Medical.

DR. CHAS. H. TOZER'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
N. E. Cor. Jackson and Kearney Sts.,
SAN FRANCISCO.

THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON, EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO AND THE LAST THREE YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. TOZER'S

Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all those diseases generally known as Venereal or Chronic.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar, some, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self Abuse. The brain being the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in consequence. I will here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering: Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, and an Aversion to Genial Society, especially that of Females. There are a great many more, but these are sufficient, and should you be suffering from any of them, call on DR. TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time, without any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office.

Stricture of the Urethra
Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for one of my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few days.

Venereal Diseases
In all their various forms, either Primary, Secondary or Hereditary completely eradicated from the system. Your constitution being restored to perfect health, there will be no danger of handing down to your children that terrible disease known as Scrofula.

Syphilitic Disease
As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more formidable character than that seen in the Atlantic States or Europe, arising from the fact of its being a compound of Spanish, Chinese and Sandwich Island disease. Those of you that have visited the two latter countries no doubt have seen the dreadful effects of it on both the native and foreign population. It requires altogether different mode of treatment.

The Old Formulas
Of Ricord, Actel and Bostwick are of little account, except to dry up the disease on the surface, leaving the poison in the blood, which, sooner or later will show itself as a secondary disease in an aggravated form. These facts I have learned by experience, and think that I can say without boasting that I have seen more practice in these diseases than any other physician in California, dating, as it does from 1849. It becomes you therefore, to think well before you employ a physician.

Who is the proper one to consult—an old experienced one or one who has recently settled amongst you?

My Plan is Purely Vegetable,
Destroying the disease and purifying the blood, so that there is no danger of secondary symptoms.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia,
And diseases arising from the use of Mercury, such as pains in the shin bones, swelling of the different joints of the body, running sores, etc., etc., and impurities of the blood, cured in a short time by the use of my VEGETABLE MIXTURES, known only to myself.

Diseases Peculiar to Females,
Such as Retention, Painful Menstruation, etc., etc., have been my study for a great number of years, and I can safely promise a perfect cure in a short time.

Be not deterred from calling on Dr. TOZER from delicacy or a fear of exposure, as the Doctor is a man in whom you can trust, and all cases are treated with the utmost secrecy.

My Female Pills
Are the best ever used in this climate, for the Suppression of the Monthly Sickness. Every lady should have a box, in case of necessity. Price, $5. Consultation at the office or by letter, FREE. All letters returned or destroyed. Office hours from 9 A. M. till 8 P. M.
